In addition to serving as an answer to [ ] questions, the information contained herein may be considered by [ ] as the current Headquarter's policy on subject items.

2. Prior to return to the [ ] from overseas, each individual will be asked to submit three choices for reassignment. Insofar as possible, these choices will be considered by [ ] at the time of determining actual reassignment. It should be noted, however, that in many instances reassignment locations that are requested are not available as the result of a simple matter of supply and demand. 3. No overseas credit will be given for the time spent at [ ]. Full Credit will be given for the time actually spent overseas. If this time overseas is six months or more, a new return date will be established based on the actual return date of the individual. If the time overseas is less than six months, the actual amount of time spent overseas will be added to the individual's current return date and the old return date will be advanced by that amount. This may be subject to change since it is anticipated that a new [ ] policy governing creditable overseas service is forthcoming in the near future. You will be advised of this change.
